

Privacy Notice

Effective Date: from 1 August 2022

This Privacy Notice explains how particular companies in the Vistra Ireland group collect, use and disclose your personal data, and your rights in relation to the personal data it holds.

Vistra Alternative Investments (Ireland) Limited or Vistra Trust Services (Ireland) Limited or Vistra Assurance (Ireland) Limited or Kanni Finance Limited or Vistra Fund Services (Ireland) Limited or Vistra Corporate Services (Ireland) Limited or Vistra Financial Services (Ireland) Limited or Canyon Corporate Secretaries Limited (in this Privacy Notice, “us”, “we” and “our”) may be a data controller of your personal data and will be subject to data protection obligations under the Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018 (as amended) and the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the GDPR and collectively, the Data Protection Legislation) and any locally applicable data protection laws in Ireland.

This Privacy Notice supersedes any previous privacy notice or equivalent which you may have been provided with or seen prior to the Effective Date stated above.

Your rights

Under the Data Protection Legislation, you have the following rights:

- To obtain access to, and copies of, the personal data that we hold about you;
- To require that we cease processing your personal data if the processing is causing you damage or distress;
- To require us not to send you marketing communications;
- To require us to erase your personal data;
- To require us to restrict our data processing activities;
- To receive from us the personal data we hold about you which you have provided to us, in a reasonable format specified by you, including for the purpose of you transmitting that personal data to another data controller; and
- To require us to correct the personal data we hold about you if it is incorrect.

Please note that the above rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests where exceptions apply. You can find out more about your rights at <https://www.dataprotection.ie>.

How we collect personal data

We collect personal data in a number of ways, for example:

- From the information you provide to us;
- From information about you provided to us by your company or an intermediary; and
- When you communicate with us in writing, by telephone, fax, website registration, email or other forms of electronic communication. In this respect, we may monitor, record and store any such communication;
- When you complete (or we complete on your behalf) client on-boarding or application or other forms;
- From other companies in the Vistra group;
- From your agents, advisers, intermediaries, and custodians of your assets; and
- From publicly available sources or from third parties, most commonly where we need to conduct background checks about you.

The categories of personal data we collect

We collect the following categories of personal data about you:

- Your name and contact information such as your home or business address, job title, email address and telephone number;
- Biographical information which may confirm your identity including your date of birth, tax identification number and your passport number or national identity card details, country of domicile and/or your nationality;
- Information relating to your financial situation such as income, expenditure, assets and liabilities, sources of wealth, as well as your bank account details;
- An understanding of your goals and objectives in procuring our services;
- Information about your employment, education, family or personal circumstances, and interests, where relevant; and
- Information to assess whether you may represent a politically exposed person or money laundering risk.

The basis for processing your personal data (other than with your consent), how we use that personal data and whom we share it with

(i) Performance of a contract with you

We process your personal data because it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract.

In this respect, we use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To prepare a proposal for you regarding the services we offer;
- To provide you with the services as set out in our terms of engagement with you or as otherwise agreed with you from time to time;
- To deal with any complaints or feedback you may have; and
- For any other purpose for which you provide us with your personal data.

In this respect, we may share your personal data with or transfer it to the following:

- Your agents, advisers, intermediaries, and custodians of your assets who you tell us about;
- Financial institutions or the Irish Companies Registration Office or the Irish Revenue Commissioners and/or third-party professionals where this is required or requested as part of the services performed under a contract (for example, when opening a bank account or performing company secretarial services or making annual filings, in each case on behalf of a client entity);
- Third parties whom we engage to assist in delivering the services to you, including other companies in the Vistra group;
- Our professional advisers where it is necessary for us to obtain their advice or assistance, including lawyers, accountants, IT or public relations advisers;
- Debt collection agencies where it is necessary to recover money you owe us;
- Other third parties such as intermediaries who we introduce to you. We will wherever possible tell you who they are before we introduce you; and
- Our data storage providers.

(ii) Legitimate interests

We also process your personal data because it is necessary for our legitimate interests, or sometimes where it is necessary for the legitimate interests of another person.

In this respect, we use your personal data for the following purposes:

- For marketing to you. In this respect, see the separate section on marketing below;
- Training our staff or monitoring their performance;
- For the administration and management of our business, including recovering money you owe to us, and archiving or statistical analysis; and
- Seeking advice on our rights and obligations, such as where we require our own legal advice.

In this respect, we will share your personal data with the following:

- Our advisers or agents where it is necessary for us to obtain their advice or assistance; and
- With third parties and their advisers where those third parties are acquiring, or considering acquiring, all or part of our business.

(iii) Legal obligations

We also process your personal data for our compliance with a legal obligation which we are under.

In this respect, we will use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To meet our compliance and regulatory obligations, such as compliance with anti-money laundering laws; and
- As required by tax authorities or any competent court or legal authority.

In this respect, we will share your personal data with the following:

- Our advisers where it is necessary for us to obtain their advice or assistance;
- Our auditors where it is necessary as part of their auditing functions;
- With third parties who assist us in conducting background checks; and
- With relevant regulators or law enforcement agencies where we are required to do so.

Marketing

We will send you marketing about services we provide which may be of interest to you, as well as other information in the form of alerts, newsletters and invitations to events or functions which we believe might be of interest to you or in order to update you with information (such as legal or commercial news) which we believe may be relevant to you.

We, or other members of the Vistra group, may communicate this to you in a number of ways including by post, telephone, email or other digital channels.

If you object to receiving marketing from us at any time, please contact us.

Withdrawal of Consent

If you have given your consent and you wish to withdraw it at any time, please contact us.

Transfer and processing of your personal data outside the European Economic Area (EEA)

When sharing your personal data with third parties as set out in this Privacy Notice, it may be transferred outside the UK or EEA. In these circumstances, your personal data will only be transferred on one of the following bases:

- The country that we send the personal data to is approved by the European Commission as providing an adequate level of protection for personal data (and hence such transfer is also permissible under the UK GDPR);
- The recipient has entered into standard contractual clauses with us in a form that has been adopted by the European Commission, subject to any necessary supplementary safeguards as required by applicable law; or
- You have consented to the transfer or where another derogation applies, for example where the transfer is necessary in connection with a contract with you or for your benefit.

To find out more about transfers by us of your personal data outside the EEA and the countries concerned, please contact us.

Retention of your data

We will only retain your personal data for as long as we have a lawful reason to do so in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. In particular:

- Where we have collected your personal data as required by anti-money laundering legislation, including for identification, screening and reporting, we will retain that personal data for seven (7) years after the termination of our relationship, unless we are required to by another law, regulation or for the purposes of court proceedings; or
- Otherwise, we will in most cases retain your personal data for a period of seven (7) years after the termination of our contractual or other relationship with you in case any claims arise out of the provision of our services to you.
